DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-6, 10-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Alanara et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,292,668).

Regarding claims 1-3, 5-6, 10, 12-15, 17-18, Alanara et al. teach a mobile station, comprising: a wireless communication unit for wirelessly communicating with a mobile communication system network [col. 5, lines 21-25]; and a Web function units which is connected to a content in mobile communication system network via wireless communication unit and has includes a WWW (World Wide Web) content server function, that provides content to another mobile station via mobile communication system network [col. 5, lines 34-52].

Regarding claims 4, 11, 16, Alanara et al. teach a mobile station according as in claim 1, wherein the WWW content server function includes at least one of a WWW server function, a mail server function, and a news server function [col. 5, lines 36-44].

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 19-20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

4. Claim 7 is allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claim 7, prior arts fail to teach a mobile communication system, comprising a mobile communication system network; and first and second mobile stations connected to mobile communication system network, first mobile station comprising a Web function unit with a content server function in World Wide Web (WWW), and second mobile station comprising a browser function unit for browsing, a WWW content, wherein mobile communication system network comprises cache equipment, which caches content having a high access frequency among a plurality of contents provided by Web function unit, and when second mobile station requests the content, provides content, cached in cache equipment, to second mobile station.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 2681

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
